Medical Information Notice

When we evaluate your request for insurance, the state of health of the person(s) for whom insurance is requested is, of course, extremely important to us. Consequently, we need to ask you questions about the health and medical history of each person. In addition, you are also requested to authorize any physician or hospital to provide us with reports, if necessary, about the health of each person. In some instances, we may require a physical examination.

Any information we obtain regarding a person's insurability will be treated as confidential. We may, however, make a brief report of it to the Medical Information Bureau, a non-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. When you apply for life, disability, or health insurance to any company, including Prudential, which is a member of the Medical Information Bureau, or submit a claim for benefits to such a company, the Bureau will, on request, give the company the information in its files. We may reveal this information, as necessary, to a doctor, if we find a serious health problem which you do not know about. We may also reveal this information to persons conducting mortality or morbidity studies. We will, if you ask, give you a description of other circumstances when we disclose information about you without your prior authorization.

You have the right to see any of the personal information we collect about you and to make corrections if necessary. If you ask, we will furnish you with instructions on how to exercise this right. In addition, upon receipt of a request from you, the Bureau will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If the information came from the Medical Information Bureau and you question the accuracy of the information in the Bureau's file, you may contact the Bureau and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of the Bureau's Information Office is P.O. Box 105, Essex Station, Boston, Massachusetts 02112. 617-426-3660.

It Is Required That You Be Given This Notice.
Please Read It Carefully, And Keep It For Your Records.
